

REPUBLICAN

SEVENTH YEAR.

MAYSVILLE, KY., MONDAY, OCTOBER 17, 1898.

ONE CENT.

WEATHER WISE.

What May Be Expected Here During the Next Thirty-six Hours.

THE LEDGER CODE.

White streamer—Fair.
Blue—Rain or shower.
Black above—Well weathered.
Black below—Clouds will be.
If black is not shown no change will be.
The above forecast is made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 6 o'clock tomorrow evening.

All matter for publication must be handed in before 9 o'clock in the morning of each day.

If you have an item of news, please call up THE LEDGER, Telephone 93, and send it in.

If you have friends visiting you, or if you are going away on a visit, please drop us a note to that effect.

Mr. J. I. Salisbury is home from a visit in Illinois.

Major Hueston spent yesterday with his family in this city.

Colonel Charles D. Pearce returned Saturday evening from Louisville.

Mr. and Mrs. Dan Mitchell have returned to Carlisle after a visit to relatives here.

Mr. Henry Haughey and wife and Miss Mollie Haughey of Searsville are visiting relatives in this city.

After a month's visit to her son, Mr. John Duley, Mrs. Sophia Duley will tomorrow leave for her home near Tilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett B. Wall of Richmond, Va., are here on a week's visit to the former's parents, Judge and Mrs. Garrett B. Wall.

Miss Hattie Caywood, a popular young lady of Oakwood, was the pleasant guest of her friend, Miss Mary O'Hara, Thursday and Friday.

Sir Knights E. A. Robinson, P. G. C. of Kentucky, and George H. and William G. Huter represented Mayville Commerce at the Pittsburgh Conference.

Miss Maude Clay of Paris arrived this morning and will accompany Mrs. Garrett B. Wall and Miss Ethelene on a trip to New York, leaving on the 1:10 train this afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Adams of Nashville are guests of his brother, Mr. John C. Adams. They arrived Saturday afternoon in the city, where they had been visiting Mrs. Adams's parents.

Mr. Montgomery Hunter of Louisville, Mr. Frank A. Hunter of St. Paul and Mr. J. Lewis Hunter of Newport News, Va., are in the city to attend the funeral of their mother-in-law, the late Mrs. Julia G. Morgan.

Sponges and Camels Hair, the best quality for the least money at C. W. H. A. & Co., Druggists.

Time is your capital. Present it.

John Hayes, the well known sidewalk contractor, was seriously ill Saturday but is now much better.

Clarence Robinson of Cincinnati, formerly of this city, met Miss Maline, head of Aberdeen at Georgetown a few days ago.

Major McDowell's flying boat broke the world's record for sailing two-year-olds at Lexington Saturday afternoon in the racing Futurity. Time, 2:10.4. Main Boats was second.

Brian Letton, aged 40, unmarried, was killed by being thrown from a wagon on T. J. Redmond's place near Paris. The wagon was overturned and Letton was thrown against a ditch, receiving injuries from which he died a few minutes later.

Intellectual lovers.
As men and maids have met before;
They got acquainted, he and she,
And strolled upon the sandy shore.

They tossed white pebbles in the deep.
They passed the merry throng at play;
They watched the swallows' graceful sweep,
And saw the liners sail away.

But words of love they uttered not.
For they were Boston bred, and so
They talked a lot of Boston know,
And missed the joy that lovers know.

—Chitrago News.

Mrs. Belle Prior of Carlisle gets a widow's pension of $4 a month.

William Brown, the harness maker who had two strokes of paralysis, is much better.

New buildings to the value of $40,000 are in course of construction at Hopkinsville.

Overcoats, heavy blouses and stoves are very conspicuous at Camp Hamilton, Lexington.

A petition signed by four-fifths of the Murot Kentucky at Anston, Ky., asks to be furnished out.

The City Council at Paducah has under consideration an ordinance requiring $200 license per year from itinerant merchants.

El Perkins will make a visit to Mayville on Monday, December 13th. El is one of American famous men, with the prize "get there."

Saturday's Courier-Journal contained a half-ton portrait of Miss Annie Sims, a handsome and attractive young lady of Xenia, Tenn.

Mrs. W. B. Stephens of Newport was called to the bedside of her mother, Mrs. James Smith, of East Second street, who is seriously ill.

Corporal John S. Stephens of Company A, Second Kentucky, was promoted to sergeant Friday from Captain Shoemaker, saying camp at once.

Kentucky received the National C. W. M. B. banner for the best year's work at the General Christian Missionary Convention at Chattanooga.

"Sport" Skinner and Dave Parks got out of jail Saturday and at once began arranging to get back. Saturday night they stole a ship belonging to Mr. Leggett, and officers Wallace and Rosser captured them. Their case will be heard at 9 o'clock.

Major W. H. Kirby, Engineer in charge of the improvements of the Ohio river, has advertised for bids for a light draft steamboat and combined derrick and crane to take the place of the tugboat E. A. Woodruff, now undergoing repairs at Cincinnati.

The Atlantic Transportation Company, a New Jersey corporation with $1,000,000 capital, has a contract with the Chesapeake and Ohio Railway Company to handle its total output of fuel, involving the movement of 4,000,000 tons annually from Newport News to the coast ports.

Loretta Brookover, aged 19, fired a pistol twice at her father, Mr. J. H. Brookover, who joined a crowd on a corner, causing a panic. The girl and her mother, who was recently divorced from Brookover, allege that he came out of his house and peeped in at the window. Brookover was shot by his son Victor a year ago during a family quarrel.

The Masonic Grand Lodge and the Grand Chapter of Kentucky will meet in annual session at Masonic Temple, Louisville, to-morrow, L. M. West, Master, will preside.

Mr. George Schwartz will represent Mayville Chapter, and Commodore J. D. Brown as a member of the Finance Committee of the latter body.

Mr. Earl Winston, you know, of Kenton, Kenton county, you know, writes to Postmaster Matthews, you know, to know, you know, if he knows, you know, what word will be worth, you know, at gathering time in Mayville, you know, that Mr. G. W. you know, belongs to that large class of people who think they know that a Postmaster knows everything that anybody else wants to know, you know.

The Matinee Musical will meet at the residence of Mr. G. W. Blatterman this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock.

Hon. E. Dudley Walker of Hartford, one of the foremost lawyers of Western Kentucky, died Saturday.

The Adams Express Company had an "Old Rose" sale at Cincinnati a few days ago, and now there is a holy kick from some parties who paid several dollars for packages which contained a few cents worth of patent medicine.

Joe Holter Post No. 6, O. A. R., will have a campfire at the Electric Park Thursday, Friday and Saturday evenings, October 20th, 21st and 22d. Several prominent speakers will be present and there will be various kinds of amusement on the grounds.

The administrator of Ed Shannon of Winchester, the L. and N. yardmaster who was killed at Paris last spring, has brought suit in the Clark Circuit Court against the Railroad Company for $25,000 damages, alleging that Shannon's death was caused by his foot being caught in a defective frog, for which the company was responsible.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard, Miss Lida Burgess, Miss Perry and Mr. Reed. Chorus will be singing. If this concert is successful one will be given each month by the musical talent.

The first of a series of concerts to be given at the Christian Church this winter will take place Monday evening next, Miss Lida Berry having charge. There will be music by the Mayville Orchestra, and Mr. Dr. White, Mr. Robert Blum, Miss Covina Clinkenbeard

100

THIRTEEN SAVED.

Twelve Bodies of the Passengers of the Wrecked Mohagan Have Been Rescued.

THIRTY-ONE ARE STILL MISSING.

Of the Crew and Cattlemen Thirty-Nine Are Safe and Fourteen Bodies Have Been Recovered.

Thirty-Nine Bodies Have Been Identified. Mostly the Bodies of Sailors—Eight in the Vicinity of the Accident to Pick Up Bodies.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Atlantic Transport Co. issued the following statement Sunday evening regarding the fate of the passengers and crew of the steamer Mohagan, which was wrecked last Friday evening off the Lizard, between the Manx and the Lowlands. Of the passengers 11 have been saved, 10 bodies have been recovered and 83 are missing.

"Of the crew and cattlemen 39 have been saved, 11 bodies have been recovered and 41 are missing."

Since this statement was issued nine other bodies have been picked up, including two that have been identified as those of passengers.

The reports of the various correspondents differ widely as to the rescues, recoveries and losses, though none have been able to obtain the exact number of those saved or of the bodies recovered.

The bodies of the following passengers have been recovered: T. W. King, Edna King, Master King, J. H. Blackie, Miss H. M. Cowan, Mr. Fallow, R. Franklin Peller, Mrs. J. L. Jones, George Heymour, Miss L. H. Warren. The latest advice from Falmouth Sunday evening says that 83 bodies have been identified, mostly the bodies of sailors. Four are as yet unidentified, including those of two elderly ladies. One appears to be a German. She wore a watch and a wedding ring, both engraved "1871." The other wore a silver brooch, with the letter "P" in pearls. This is probably the body of Mrs. Charles Duncan.

Nine of the bodies have been brought to Falmouth, the others to the village church at St. Keverne. The rescued passengers are being sheltered at cottages along the shore and the crew at the sailors' home at Falmouth.

Fog have been clearing the vicinity all day Sunday, despite the very rough weather, in hope of picking up other bodies. The cause of the disaster remains the profound mystery. Nobody attempts to explain how the Mohagan got so far north of her true course—from 6 to 7 miles. There was no fog at the time; while the wind on her port quarter was not sufficient to prevent her answering the helm. It has been suggested that her compass was faulty; but daylight faded long after Eddystone light was passed.

The sailors say the fact that the Lizard light was not visible above had served to give the alarm.

The masts of the Mohagan, which were above water, show that the vessel is landward, meaning a theory that the navigating officer on discovering that he was in the bay suddenly turned seaward. Two engineers who were saved swimmers, however, that they never slackened speed.

Remarkable stories of rescue continue. Robert Barrow, seaman, performed the feat of swimming unaided, through the roughest water to Covepoint Point, a distance of two and one-half miles. He climbed up the ragged cliff, where a searching party found him early the next morning, completely exhausted. A. G. Smith, of Oregon, a passenger, surrendered to a woman in the water wreckage that was supporting him and swam ashore unaided. The woman was saved. Her name is reported as Miss Webb, but no such name appears in the company's list.

Messrs. Smith and W. J. Bloomingdale say there was the greatest difficulty in launching the boats. The ropes were new and stiff and the blocks would not work. Four or five times as many sailors as should have been necessary struggled to lower each boat. The loaders were hard to open.

The crew, in a chivalrous effort to save the women, made the mistake of undermanning the boats. There were only four sailors in one boat, which capsized as soon as it was launched. Messrs. Smith and Bloomingdale say that Capt. Griffiths had appeared all night long.

The death of Mr. T. W. King, who was a newspaper proprietor at Nantucket, Mass., and of his family, including Mrs. King, her mother, Mrs. Walker, and his sons Rufus, aged 11, and Anthony, aged 7, has caused deep sorrow at Nantucket, where the family has a summer cottage and was very popular.

Joseph O'Rourke, King's valet, who was saved, says he was on deck when the crash came. The lights went out immediately. Rushing to the saloon he heard Mr. King exhorting his family to keep cool.

O'Rourke, with seven others, clung to the rigging until 6 o'clock Saturday morning, when a life boat took him off. He identified the bodies of the King's and Mrs. Walker and will have them embalmed and taken to the United States in accordance with cable instructions from the relatives of the family at Nantucket.

(The description in the London dispatch of Mr. T. W. King as a newspaper proprietor at Nantucket, Mass., is probably erroneous. Inquiry shows that the proprietors of the local papers in Nantucket and its vicinity bear other names. In Boston paper circles Mr. King's name is unfamiliar. Probably he was a wealthy summer resident of Nantucket.)

Thirty-Nine Bodies Have Been Identified. Mostly the Bodies of Sailors—Eight in the Vicinity of the Accident to Pick Up Bodies.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

"Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

THE CUBAN DEBT.

American and Spanish Peace Commissioners at Loggerheads Over the Question.

ON THIS THEY CAN NOT COME TO TERMS

The Americans Claim That the Question Has Been Laid on the Table and Refuse to Discuss It.

Spaniards Say It Would Be an Extraordinary Course to Saddle Spain With the Debt, While Surrendering the Security to Pay It.

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

"The Cuban debt question has thus been laid on the table, and the American commissioners had already given a peremptory refusal to discuss a principle which had been settled, as they considered, by the peace preliminaries. Faithful to the attitude adopted by them from the outset, they seemed resolved to take their stand on the instructions—or rather, as I have already said, the precise and concise orders—which they brought with them, but the Spaniards, on their side, do not think themselves bound to bow with docility to the imperative instructions of another government."

"They returned to the charge Saturday, if I am well informed, arguing the generally admitted principle which imposes on conquerors the burdens belonging to the territory conquered, either their own or that of their clients. They insist that it would be an extraordinary course to saddle Spain, already in no lamentable financial position, with the Cuban debt, while surrendering to the victor the security with which it should be paid."

"They remarked, according to my information, that if they had asked the United States for permission to raise interest out of the customs revenues, they would naturally have met with a refusal. How then can they be asked to leave to the victor the pledge allowing payment of interest and yet retain the burden of debt? They observed, however, that as Cuba is the key to the Gulf of Mexico, the United States will thus be able to pass the only barrier which had hitherto been unable to cross at will, and that is worth some sacrifice."

Hence the Spanish commissioners insist, in the name of recognizing international law, that the debt should not rest solely on Spanish shoulders. It is impossible to foretell the American reply, but it is not likely that Mr. Day and his colleagues will yield. Andies is asked—and said to be warmly advocated by the friends of peace and justice—that the interest should be reduced 30 per cent., or even to 2 per cent., and jointly guaranteed by the Spaniards and the future rulers of Cuba, each thus bearing only a very slight burden and the bondholders being protected from loss on their investment. This last information does not emanate either from Spaniards or Americans, but there is an intention of backing it so as to give it some chance of success."

LONDON, Oct. 17.—The Paris correspondent of the Times says: "The peace negotiations are necessarily slow, being conducted less by exchange of words than exchange of notes and statements. Senor Montero Rios, president of the Spanish commission, does not understand English. Consequently the few words exchanged must be interpreted and even then, they are definitive till committed to paper."

PEACE JUBILEE.

It Was Inaugurated in the Chicago Auditorium With a Union Thanksgiving Service.

PRESIDENT MCKINLEY IN ATTENDANCE.

Addresses Were Delivered by a Catholic Priest, Jewish Rabbi, Presbyterian and Colored Orator.

Over 15,000 People Were in the Hall and as Many More on the Outside Unable to Get Admission.—Mr. McKinley the University's Guest.

CHICAGO, Oct. 17.—The national peace jubilee of Chicago was Sunday night inaugurated with a union thanksgiving service at the Auditorium. President McKinley attended and listened to addresses by a Jewish Rabbi, a Roman Catholic priest, a Presbyterian clergyman and a noted colored orator. The applause for the president's remarks, and at one time he was compelled to rise in his box and respond to the frantic cheering of the audience. The services, however, were of a religious character, and at times the solemn silence of the vast assemblage was much more eloquent than the wildest applause could be.

The president rested during a great part of the day at the residence of Capt. Lafayette Williams, his relative, where he is being entertained. He did not attend church in the morning. For a short time in the afternoon he was taken for a drive in company with Mrs. McKinley, Capt. McWilliams and Mrs. McWilliams.

The party was driven to the Auditorium at 6 o'clock, and all along the way people, the crowd to witness the passage of the president's carriage. Easily 10,000 people were within the great Auditorium, and probably as many more were on the outside unable to obtain admittance.

The president was seated in a box on the left side of the Auditorium and with him were Alexander H. Revell, president Wm. R. Harper, of the University of Chicago, Dr. Henry W. Williams, Secretary and Mrs. Gage, Secretary Bliss, Assistant Secretary Melville and Postmaster Gordon.

Elaborate music had been prepared for the meeting under the direction of Henry H. Roney, Rev. Dr. Henry W. Thomas, pastor of the People's church, was chairman of the meeting, Bishop Samuel Fallows led in the recital of the Lord's prayer, and Rev. Dr. Jenkins Lloyd Jones in the responsive reading.

The first address was by Rabbi Emil G. Hirsch, who brought out a great part of his address by a reference to President McKinley.

Rev. Dr. Thomas P. Hodnett, a Catholic clergyman, caught the fancy and applause of the audience by repeated references to the president, Schley and the rough riders, and when he mentioned President McKinley by name the people became so demonstrative that the president was compelled to rise in his box and bow his acknowledgments. At the conclusion of his address Dr. Hodnett aroused much enthusiasm by a philippic against the "growing influence of monopoly and the cohesive power of unjust corporations."

One of the most stirring speeches of the evening was made by Rev. Dr. John Henry Harrows, who took a firm stand in favor of the retention of the Philippines, which sentiment appeared to meet entirely the approbation of the audience.

Rev. Dr. Washington was the last speaker. His address was listened to with marked attention.

Monday for the most part of the day the president was the guest of the University of Chicago, from which institution he will receive the degree of LL. D.

YELLOW FEVER RECORD.

Eight New Cases at Jackson, Miss., No Deaths—Six Cases at Yazoo City—Three Deaths and 19 Cases at Other Points.

JACKSON, Miss., Oct. 17.—The Jackson record of new cases of yellow fever for Sunday was eight, as follows:

W. E. Davidson, Otto Galle, Donnie Cloud, Cecil Cord, Prof. Moore, Otto Johnson and two Negroes.

There were no deaths though some of the sick are seriously ill. Dr. Purnell who investigated suspicious sickness at Yazoo City reported Sunday that he found six cases of genuine yellow fever there. The state board of health reports three deaths and 19 new cases at other points.

New Record Established.

NEW YORK, Oct. 17.—Rich Palmer, of the Vermont wheelmen, Brooklyn, set a new city hall, city, Sunday at 3:30 p. m., having ridden from Cincinnati in 88 hours, establishing a new record. The former record was 101 hours.

Jerusalem Crowded With Yutzim.

JERUSALEM, Oct. 17.—The city is already overcrowded with visitors, chiefly Germans, awaiting the arrival of Emperor William.

In considering terms of Peace, it is of vital importance to remember that the largest piece and the best piece—of really good chewing tobacco in the world is the 10-cent piece of

Battle-Ax PLUG

Any discussion of pieces or comparison of brands can only result in the award of every claim to America—and to Battle Ax. Try it to-day.

Remember the name when you buy again.

FREE ADVERTISING.

No Charge! Advertisements under the heading of "Help Wanted," "Lost," "Found," etc., of an acceptable nature, and not to exceed three lines, on this page are FREE to all.

No Business Advertisements inserted without pay.

Yours truly to some the first time, we write as many repetitions as are necessary to secure what you desire for free. We wish the advertisers to feel that they are not imposing on us by using our free columns.

Advertisements can be left at our office or sent through the mail to:

THE PUBLIC LEDGER,
No. 10 E. Third Street.

WANTED.
ADVERTISERS: 50 per cent. working at home, no canvassing. Send no money. Standard Novelty Co., 34 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

WANTED.—To sell a small farm, 100 acres, on the edge of the city. Call on or address J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

WANTED.—Girl to do general housework. Apply to Mrs. JOHN M. BAIRD, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Dwelling of five rooms and kitchen, at the right price. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Desirable residence property, in the city. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Desirable residence property, in the city. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Desirable residence property, in the city. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Desirable residence property, in the city. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

FOR RENT.—Desirable residence property, in the city. Apply to J. L. MARKWELL, Export, 100 Broadway, New York City. Send no money.

